There are six main menus in Online Order:

1. Place Order: to place product orders.
2. Product Catalog: to view the list of products available for distributors to order.
3. Transaction List: to view a list of all transactions made by the distributor.
4. Draft Order: to view a list of draft orders that have not been submitted by the distributor for processing into transactions.
5. Account: to view the distributor's profile.
6. Help: to access information about online orders, such as FAQs, Glossary, tutorial videos, and contact info.

View Products Catalog

To explore the products that available for ordering you can go through the Product Catalog menu. You can view detailed information about the products, such as net weight, items per carton, product category, MOQ (minimum order quantity), and the quantity of products (in carton units) that can be loaded into a container because we ship your order by container.

Place Order

Products can be ordered through the Place Order menu. There are several conditions that need to be known when placing orders, as follows:

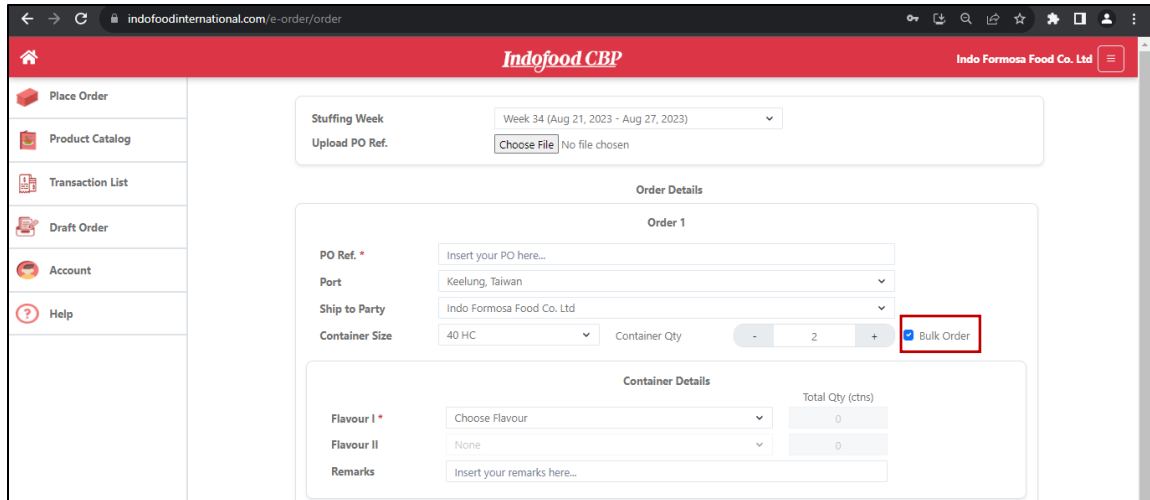

1. The quantity of products is calculated for each container in the Online Order system. Containers are made up of cartons, and the quantity of cartons are determined by the container's load of the products.
2. There is a Minimum Order Quantity (MOQ) for each product per week.
3. The types of products that can be loaded into one container are limited to a maximum of 2 product types/flavour, following the MOQ requirements.
4. You can create more than one order within the same week of delivery by using the "Add Order" button located at the bottom left of the product details per container.
5. There are two types of order that distributors can make:
 - a. Container Detail: In this type of order placement, you can specify the details of the products (types and quantities) that must be loaded into a single container. The Figure 10 below shows the display of the Place Order Page by Container Detail.

The screenshot shows the 'Place Order' page on the Indofood CBP website. The left sidebar contains navigation links: Place Order, Product Catalog, Transaction List, Draft Order, Account, and Help. The main content area is titled 'Indofood CBP' and 'Indo Formosa Food Co. Ltd'. It features a 'Stuffing Week' dropdown set to 'Week 34 (Aug 21, 2023 - Aug 27, 2023)' and an 'Upload PO Ref.' section with a 'Choose File' button. Below this is the 'Order Details' section for 'Order 1', which includes fields for 'PO Ref.' (placeholder: 'Insert your PO here...'), 'Port' (dropdown: 'Keelung, Taiwan'), 'Ship to Party' (dropdown: 'Indo Formosa Food Co. Ltd'), and 'Container Size' (dropdown: '40 HC'). A 'Container Qty' section shows a quantity of '1' with minus and plus buttons, and a 'Bulk Order' checkbox. The 'Container 1' section includes 'Flavour I' (dropdown: 'Choose Flavour'), 'Flavour II' (dropdown: 'None'), and 'Remarks' (text area: 'Insert your remarks here...'). A 'Total Qty (ctn)' column shows '0' for both flavours.

6. You can place orders only 3 to 4 months in advance, in accordance with our timeline for processing and manufacturing the product based on the order
7. If you have a purchasing order document, it can be attached to the "Upload PO. Ref" section as a reference during order confirmation.

How to Place Order

Below are the steps required when placing an order:

1. Select the preferred Stuffing Week (the week when the products are ready to be shipped from our factories to your location).
2. Upload your Purchase Order document on "Upload PO Ref." (if available).
3. Insert your Purchase Order number in the "PO Ref." field.
4. Select your destination port in the "Port" field.
5. Choose the party that will receive the products in the "Ship to Party" field (default: Distributor Name).
6. Select the "Container Size" that will be used for shipping the products (default: 40 HC) and the quantity of containers to be ordered. If you want to place an order with a large number of containers and the same composition, check the "Bulk Order" checkbox.
